

Diana L. Martinez

Diana L. Martinez is a Family Law Lawyer practicing in the counties of San Bernardino, Orange, Los Angeles, and Riverside. Her practice is dedicated to out-of-court dispute resolution through consulting, collaborative, and mediation processes. Ms. Martinez is also a trainer and educator, locally, nationally, and internationally as a faculty trainer with the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, and has presented on the topics of family law mediation and collaborative law, confidentiality, cultural competency, and ethics and best practices. She has presented for the California State Bar, Continuing Education of the Bar, Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, Collaborative Practice California, Southern California Mediation Association, University of Southern California Gould School of Law, Western State Law School, and various local bar associations and practice groups. She is also a frequent guest lecturer for community Divorce Options and Divorce Recovery programs.

As a member of the board of Collaborative Practice California, past president of Collaborative Divorce Solutions of Orange County, and former newsletter editor for the Los Angeles Collaborative Family Law Association, Ms. Martinez has facilitated education and enhancement of best practices in professional communities with markedly different demographics and practice philosophies. Ms. Martinez is a co-founder of CultureCounts.net, a program dedicated to bringing awareness of cultural complexities and competency in family law matters. She also volunteers as a California State Bar Mandatory Fee Arbitrator. Her dedication in private practice, as a volunteer mediator for Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and Inyo and Mono county superior courts, and to continuing education and best practices has resulted in Super Lawyers' recognition and a "Superb" 10/10 rating in peer and client reviews. She is also a Eureka Award recipient and is one of a handful of non-litigating family lawyers to receive Super Lawyer designation multiple years running.