CURRICULUM VITAE

ABBAS HADJIAN, <http://abbashadjian.com> is a bi-lingual (Farsi & English) California certified family law specialist. Mr. Hadjian's practice is limited to litigation of complicated Family Law issues, and private or Court assigned mediation. Mr. Hadjian is also a known expert in Iranian Civil and Family Law and Procedure.

He was born in Iran and graduated from Tehran University, School of Law, Economics and Political Science in 1965. He continued his studies in Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government, Massachusetts, and obtained a Master in Public Administration in 1976. In 1986 he was graduated with J.D., from La Verne University. For a period of twenty (20) years, he was a professional journalist and Assistant to five (5) Governors of the Persian Gulf Province in Iran. He is the Founder and first President of Iranian Free University, Bandar Abbas (1977-1979).

During the past 25 years in California, Mr. Hadjian has been a legal analyst (live, television and radio in Farsi), and authored "Divorce in California" a 400 page self-help book in Farsi, published in 2001. He is a source of information and comparison between Iranian and California jurisprudence worldwide. Mr. Hadjian follows major changes in the Iranian law and procedures as they effect properties and personal relations. He keeps an updated library of Iranian civil and criminal codes and relevant legal publications in his office. He is in ongoing contact with the legal community in Iran.

On September 2014, Mr. Hadjian was appointed as member of the California State Bar's Executive Committee, Family Law Section by the Board of Trustees, State Bar of California. He is also a member of the Executive Committee, Family Law Section, Los Angeles County Bar Association (LACBA). He is past President and current chair of the Continuing Legal Education Committee, the Iranian American Lawyers Association in Los Angeles (IALA).

In 2008, Mr. Hadjian co-founded <http://culturecounts.net/>, an internet based educational center for cultural issues. Since then, Mr. Hadjian has lectured for many organizations including the California Administration of Courts (AOC), Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, (AFCC and AFCC-CA), and the Southern California Inn of the Court (SCIOC), the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers-California (AAML-CA) on cultural impact on the family practice. From 2012, Mr. Hadjian has co-chaired day long seminars on Cultural Competency in Family Practice, presented by the IALA and LACBA in the University of West Los Angeles (UWLA) <http://culturalcompetencyinfamilypractice.com/program.html>. His research study on Islamic child custody and support (child and spousal) was published in the Los Angeles Lawyer Magazine in April 2013. The article has been republished in September 2013 in the Family Law News (publication of the State Bar of California) and in November 2013, in the Website of International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, <http://www.iaml.org/>. It became topic of his Plenary speech in April 2014 in the annual gathering of the association of Collaborative Practitioners in San Francisco.
