

JINNA KANG, C.F.L.S.

Jinna Kang is a California Certified Family Law Specialist with extensive experience in all aspects of family law, including but not limited to, dissolution and paternity litigation, premarital and postnuptial agreements, international child custody disputes, cross-jurisdictional issues, foreign service issues, domestic violence cases, and high-worth property division requiring forensic accounting involvement. She has also served as an expert witness in regard to the intersection of Californian and Korean family law and the related cross-jurisdictional issues.

Ms. Kang earned a B.A. in linguistics from UCLA; she is fluent in English and Korean and conversant in Mandarin, Spanish, and Japanese. Ms. Kang earned her J.D. from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles. She has been practicing law in California since 2007, and received her Family Law Specialist certification from the State Bar in 2016. She also has been admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Texas.

Ms. Kang is actively involved in the Los Angeles legal community. She currently belongs to the Family Law Section of the California Bar Association, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the Beverly Hills Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the Association of Certified Family Law Specialists. She serves as the Secretary of the Inns of Court, Southern California Chapter, Family Law Section, and is also a member of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts and the Korean American Bar Association. Ms. Kang has been a regular volunteer at the Los Angeles Superior Court Domestic Violence Project since 2013 and has lectured on California and Korean family law issues to both attorneys and her community.