

Bio for Ellyn J. Stein

Ms. Stein's Century City-based practice is limited to family law. She represents her clients in litigated, mediated, and collaborative divorce cases.

Ms. Stein currently serves as a member of both the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section of the Beverly Hills Bar Association and the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. She is a past member of the board of the Los Angeles Collaborative Family Law Association where she served as Program Chair and developed LACFLA's Diversity Workshops. She has presented at, organized, and moderated continuing education programs for the Southern California AFCC-CA Study Group and the Beverly Hills Bar Association.

Ms. Stein attended Stanford University where she received an A.B. degree in International Relations, focusing her studies on U.S. – Latin American relations. She returned to her hometown of New York City to attend New York University School of Law, where she earned her J.D. degree.